

Sisters
at work

Franciscan

Sisters

Minoreess

1888 - 1988

Sister Annunciata (centre) visited us in Dublin after working for the relief of the starving in Ethiopia during 1985 to 1988. Sister used her medical skill to help the sick and suffering and works almost single-handed among the people there.

Confirmation day in our South African Mission

Nursing the elderly — Sister Genevieve

Helping in our orphanage.. Sister Bernardine, a nurse, worked in Natal.

Sister Dorothy, a nurse, tries her skill at balancing in the African way.

Care of the elderly at home - visiting the lonely is a Franciscan Minorress' priority.

Sister Crescentia with some of her small pupils at school

Sister Irene with one of the orphans at Blawbosh, S. Africa.

Sister Maria teaches in S. Africa - pupils ranging in age from 4 to 30 years.

Orphans at Blowbosh celebrate their Confirmation Day with a dance. Sister Irene takes charge.

Sister Annunciata tends a sick child in Ethiopia.

Tea-time at our African Orphanage

Our Sisters in Cabra are involved in parish ministry - Sisters Columba, Barbara, Assunta and Margaret Mary.

Tea-time at our African Orphanage

Our Sisters in Cabra are involved in parish ministry - Sisters Columba, Barbara, Assunta and Margaret Mary.

South Africa : Our African Sisters, visited by Sister Columba and Sister Maria, Mass has just been celebrated for the repose of Sister Benigna R.I.P. whose grave is in the background.

Sisters make an annual retreat. Here they are photographed at the end of their retreat with Sister Margaret Carney of Pennsylvania U.S.A. (4th from left on back row).

St. Francis' School - run by the Minoreess Sisters - gives Catholic based education to local pupils

Sr. Columba visits Tom and Lilly Dollard in Cabra to cheer them up.

Cabra - Sisters Barbara, Margaret, Jeannette (Philadelphia)
and Annunciata

Sister Barbara says the Rosary during May at a shrine to Our Lady in Cabra where four Sisters work as parish Sisters.

Sisters Columba and Assunta attend weekly meetings of the local Legion of Mary, acting as Spiritual Directors.

Sisters Winnie, Marianne and Carol in St. Clare's Clay Cross

Icing the Christmas cake in Cabra
Sr. Winnie

Sv. Patricia Mary

Sister Assunta

Coming for a prayer
meeting in our Oratory

Sisters, as Eucharistic Ministers, take Holy Communion to the sick and elderly.

Oratory in Cabra ; a quiet moment for Sister Winnie

A Franciscan Convent Chapel in England

1888 - 1988 ... Centenary Celebration... 2nd August 1988

Sister Christine looks after the newborn babies as a nurse.

An outing to Walsingham.....1988

Sister Patricia surveys
the scene at coffee break

Sister Ignatius tries her hand at flower arranging

Walsingham

Out for the day

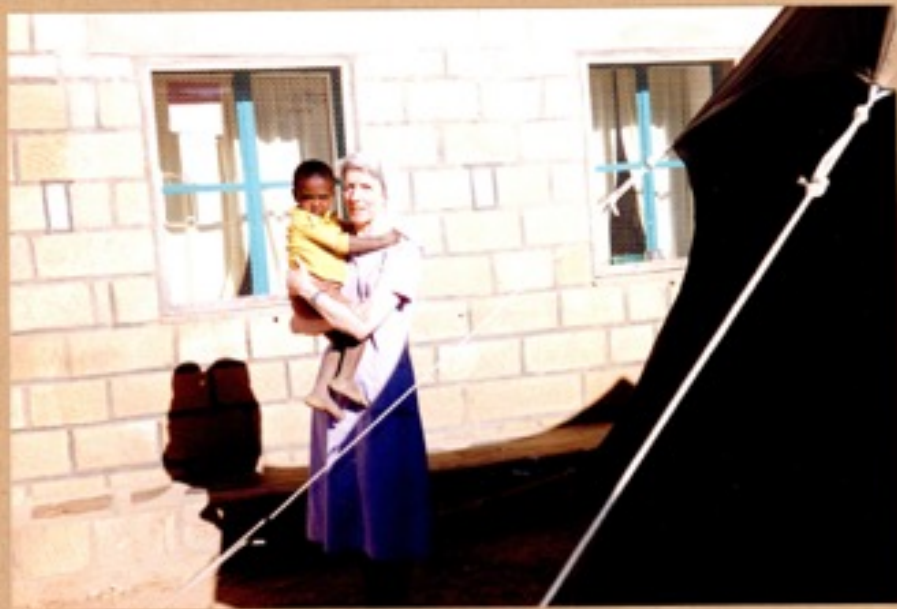

Canterbury

At home in
Cabra

Rosary in May with families during Sunday afternoons... Sister Barbara

Ethiopia... Sister Annunciata works for the relief of the starving

St. Francis' Chapel, Melton Mowbray

Coming to our Oratory for a Prayer Meeting (Cabea)

Sister Helen works in our Zulu orphanage.

Zulu orphans in Natal, S. Africa

Helping at the parish youth centre

At a Guides Meeting with Sister Barbara

Flower arranging with the Guides

Music... singing with guitar accompaniment
Sisters Margaret and Patricia

Singing with local Youth in Cabra

A musical evening in a Cabra home with Sister Barbara

Music is a hobby with our novices and Sister Patricia.

Sister Margaret and Patricia sing with a Cabra family

Music is a refreshing hobby
Sister Columba listens

Novices help the elderly in Clay Cross

Helping in the kitchen in St. Clare's

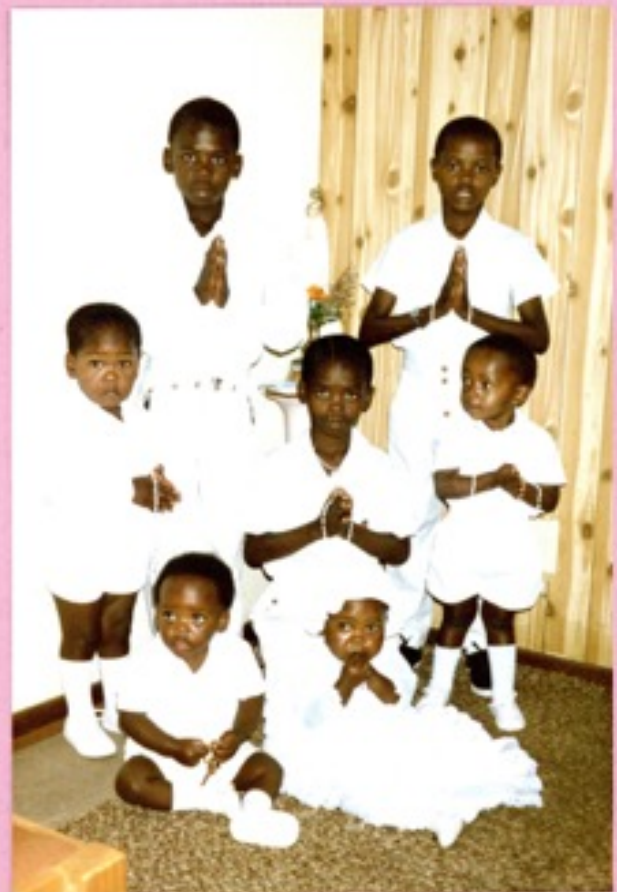

St. Anthony's Home for the elderly

The Sisters entertain the elderly at St. Anthony's Home

Our orphans proudly wear clothes sent out to them by the Apostolic Workers of Dublin and Maya.

Thank you, our friends, the Apostolic Workers

Teaching Experience for our novices at Christ the King School, Alfretton.

Sister Winnie with little artists

Sister Ignatius teaches Infants in St. Francis School, Melton Mowbray

Sister Carol helps with ten year olds

Sr. Barbara - Advent in Cabra .

The Sisters are involved with famine victims in Ethiopia